

Encompass Companies Withdrawing from Florida

Encompass Floridian Indemnity Co. and Encompass Floridian Insurance Co. notified the Office in Dec. 2008 of the companies' plans to withdraw from the homeowners' multiperil and inland marine lines of business in Florida. The Office, pursuant to Section 624.430 \(2\), FS, reviewed the withdrawal plans, determined that the withdrawal would not be hazardous to policyholders or the public and approved it. Both companies are wholly owned by Allstate Insurance Co.

As of 12-31-08, Encompass Floridian Indemnity had 4,174 policies in force with a market share of .1 percent. Policies by county.

As of 12-31-08, Encompass Floridian Insurance had 6,936 policies in force with a market share of .1 percent. Policies by county.

The discontinuance is scheduled to take effect at the end of the current policy term as the policies expire over a twelve-month period starting no earlier than April 2009.

Both companies are still licensed to write private passenger auto insurance.
