ORDER

TO:

ALLSTATE FLORIDIAN INSURANCE COMPANY, ET AL.
3075 Sanders Road, Suite H1A
Northbrook, Illinois 60062-7127

THIS CAUSE came on for consideration as a result of the May 14, 2008 First District Court of Appeal's Opinion in Allstate Floridian Insurance Company, et al. vs. Office of Insurance Regulation (Case No. 1D08-0275), upholding the State of Florida Office of Insurance Regulation's ("Office") Immediate Final Order suspending the Certificates of Authority of ALLSTATE FLORIDIAN INSURANCE COMPANY, ALLSTATE INDEMNITY COMPANY, ALLSTATE PROPERTY AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY, ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY, ALLSTATE FLORIDIAN INDEMNITY COMPANY, ALLSTATE FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE COMPANY, ENCOMPASS INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, ENCOMPASS INDEMNITY

COMPANY, ENCOMPASS FLORIDIAN INSURANCE COMPANY, and ENCOMPASS FLORIDIAN INDEMNITY COMPANY (“Allstate” or “Allstate Companies”). After a review of the Opinion and the status of the document production of Allstate, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, the Office finds:

1. The Office has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter pursuant to Sections 120.569, 624.307, 624.317, and 624.318, Florida Statutes (2007).

2. On October 16, 2007, the Office served investigative subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum (“subpoenas”) on the Allstate Companies. The investigative subpoenas required Allstate to produce responsive documents by November 30, 2007 and the subpoenas duces tecum required Allstate to bring the responsive documents to a Hearing on January 15-16, 2008.

3. In the three-month period between the service of the subpoenas and the hearing date, Allstate companies produced only 36,000 pages of documents to the Office. In addition, the Allstate Companies filed objections to the Office’s requests for documents and withheld documents, such as the so-called “McKinsey” documents.

4. On January 17, 2008, the Office issued an Immediate Final Order (“IFO”) suspending the Certificates of Authority of the Allstate Companies for failing to freely provide documents as required under Section 624.318(2), Florida Statutes.

5. The First District Court of Appeal (“Court”) stayed the suspensions of the Allstate Companies on January 18, 2008, pending its review of Allstate’s appeal of the IFO.

6. Within days of the issuance of the IFO, the Allstate Companies provided the “McKinsey” documents that had been previously withheld from the Office’s review. Moreover, within three months following the issuance of the IFO, the Allstate Companies produced in excess of 400,000 pages of documents. Since the issuance of the Court’s initial opinion on April

4, 2008, in Allstate Floridian Insurance Company, et al. vs. Office of Insurance Regulation (Case No. 1D08-0275), upholding the Office's IFO suspending the Certificates of Authority, Allstate has now produced more than 825,000 pages of documents, including those documents requested by the Office that were contained in their 196-page "privilege" log that had been previously withheld from the Office's review.

7. On May 14, 2008, the Court issued its Opinion denying Allstate's motion for rehearing, rehearing en banc, and certification, and again affirming the propriety of the Office's IFO. The Court, in addition, lifted the stay of the IFO thereby reinstating the suspensions of the Allstate Companies' Certificates of Authority.

8. The Office's current review of Allstate's document production indicates that Allstate appears to have provided those documents requested by the Office. The Allstate Companies have now certified that they have provided all paper and electronic documents as requested by the Office from approximately 90 custodians identified as having documents responsive to the Office's investigation. Allstate has further certified, pursuant to Section 624.318(2), Florida Statutes, that they will freely provide any additional documents requested by the Office and that they will cooperate and respond to any questions that may arise during the Office's investigation. Allstate's certification is attached to this Order and incorporated by this reference.

9. The purpose of the IFO was to compel the Allstate Companies to freely provide documents to the Office as required by Section 624.318(2), Florida Statutes. Inasmuch as Allstate now appears to be in compliance with the statute:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the suspensions of the Certificates of Authority for the Allstate Companies are hereby stayed, pending Allstate's continued cooperation and production of documents to the Office. Failure to continue providing requested documents to the Office in accordance with Section 624.318(2), Florida Statutes, will result in the stay being lifted and the immediate suspension of the Allstate Companies' Certificates of Authority.

DONE AND ORDERED this 16th day of May 2008.
